-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☐ Responsive to communication(s) filed on ____.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

- 6) ☐ Other: ____.

DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. Figure 1 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. The specification is replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors and appears to be a direct translation of a foreign language document. Applicant should carefully revise the entire specification to correct any and all grammatical and idiomatic errors.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

5. The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

6. Claim 1 recites the limitations "the refreshing program data," "the firmware," and "the confirmation signal" in lines 6 and 7. There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

8. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Dickens (U.S. Pub. No. 2003/0188049).

9. Referring to claim 1, Dickens teaches a peripheral community apparatus for a computers output/input, wherein said peripheral community apparatus for computers output/input comprising a community port, a first community port, a second community port, a control device and a memory (see item labeled 110 in figure 1), which is characterized in: said control device is utilized to receive a start-refreshing directive from said computer by the PS2 protocol, and the refreshing program data is burned into said memory to upgrade the firmware (see paragraphs 70-74 of page 5); the confirmation signal is transmitted back to said computer by the PS2 protocol so that said computer inspects the transmitted data (see paragraph 80 on page 6).

10. Referring to claims 2-5, Dickens teaches the refreshing program data is transmitted to the memory, which is a flash memory located inside the control device (see paragraph 46 on page 3), through a PS2 port used for a keyboard by the PS2 protocol (see paragraphs 70-74 on page 5) and that the community port, the first community port and the second community port utilize the PS2 protocol (see paragraph 49 on page 3).

Conclusion

11. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The following references are cited to further show the state of the art as it pertains to updating firmware stored within a KVM switch:

U.S. Publication No. 2003/0226137 to Nagao teaches a system and method for updating the firmware on a KVM switch from a computer coupled to the switch, however Nagao is silent on the firmware being downloaded via the PS2 protocol;

U.S. Patent No. 6,671,756 to Thomas et al. teaches a system and method for updating the firmware on a KVM switch from a computer coupled to the switch, however Thomas et al. teaches the firmware is downloaded via a specific dedicated interface and not a PS2 interface.
